

I dont think that after all that the state of wisconsin promoted the no call list and achieved it, that it would be worth jepordizing it now. Residents in Wisconsin value their privacy and it should not be taken away for the financial gain of others.